

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me some nice toys that you can wind up, and a nice, fine writing-desk, book, pair of rubbers, line of soldiers, horn, devil-in-box, also a lot of pretty fireworks, canon crackers, canon, roman candles, devil chasers, some powder matches, Your little boy,
LEON FARLEY,
304 East Leigh Street.

Dear Santa Claus: Only a few days, and Christmas will be here. I will write you this little letter to tell you what I would like you to bring me. An Irish mail, a bookcase and some books. I would like Phonograph and the stories Polly Pepper told; a Christmas tree and a plenty of fireworks. Hoping you will be here soon, with love, from your little boy,
RAYMOND VONDERLIEHR,
126 West Clay Street.

Dear Santa Claus: You have always been very good to me. This year I wish you would please bring me a workbox, an umbrella, a pair of rubbers and a story-book. I would like to have another doll and anything else you have. Please don't forget to make my old doll a new dress and to trim my Christmas tree. Wishing you a merry Christmas.
Your little girl,
PAULINE BAKER.

Dear Old Santa: My name is John Irvin, and I want a milk wagon, doll baby, desk, football and some four-in-hand ties, a little lounge and anything you will bring me. Your little boy,
JOHN IRVIN,

My Dear Santa Claus: Please bring this little girl a big doll, baby-carriage, candle, wasteland, sideboard, chairs, dishes, stove, table, a bracelet, watch and chain, diamond ring, locket and chain, a pony and cart, dollhouse, a great big Christmas tree, big as you can find. Old Christmas don't forget my auto, and bring one that can "toot, toot". This is all I want.

From your loving girl,
GENEVIEVE BOZELL,
250 East Main Street.

Dear Santa Claus—I am so glad that Christmas is near, and I want you to bring me an express wagon and a magic lantern, a canary bird, and an air-rifle, and a football and some nuts, candies and some pop-crackers.

From your little friend,
ROBERT L. PIERCE,
1115 Twenty-first St., Fairmount, Richmond, Va.

Dear Santa Claus: I thought I would tell you what I want you to bring me. I want a horn, candy, nuts and anything else you can spare for me. Please do not forget my brothers, and sister, Ethel, Good-bye.

From your little boy,
JOHN FOWLER,
No. 74 West Marshall Street, Richmond, Va.

Dear Santa Claus: As Christmas is drawing near again, I thought I would write to you and ask for a few things. Please bring me a drum, a bear, an express wagon, a fire engine, a train of cars, a horn, a story book, an automobile, a ball that won't break my mamma's window, a football and suit, some candy, nuts and fireworks. I will go to bed early and won't peep.

Your little boy,
STUART HINCHMAN.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a doll baby, a locket, seal ring, pair of kid gloves, pocket-book, and a little bear like in Mr. Mittledecker's window, and a tree. I will go to bed early.

From your little girl,
HELEN HEYER,
No. 60 North Fifth Street.

Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a postcard, a doll-baby, and carriage, a high-chair, tea-set and table. I will go to bed early and will not peep.

Your little girl,
MARY LOVELL,
No. 74 North Fourth Street.

Dear Santa Claus: Will you please bring me a sleigh, as mine is broke, and a big engine and a loop-the-loop and Noah's ark full of animals, and be sure to bring our Christmas tree. Also, some oranges, cakes and candy, and don't forget Dan and Cullen. Your friend,
THOMAS BROWN,
1013 West Marshall Street.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a boy, but I like to play with a doll-baby. Bring me a doll and piano, as I go to the kindergarten and learn how to sing and dance; a sleigh and a telephone and plenty of cakes and candies, and don't forget little Dan. He is most three years old. If you do, he will take all of mine. Good-by.

Your little boy,
JOHN CULLEN BROWN,
1013 West Marshall Street.

My Dear Santa: I am a little white-head boy. My name is Leonard Ross. If you have any change to spare please bring me a doll-baby, train, drum, story-book, sweater, sleigh. Santa, I am a very good boy at times. I must say good-by. Your little boy,
LEONARD A. ROSS,
98 1-2 West Clay Street.

Dear Santa—Please bring me a Christmas tree, football, a game, fireworks, express wagon, pair shoes. Santa, I am a good child—I thank you very much for what you brought me last year. Good-by. I am,
Your little boy,
CHARLES B. ROSS,
304 W. Clay Street.

Dear Santa Claus—I want you to bring me a book and ladder to go with my fire engine you brought last Christmas. I've kept it all right, and haven't broken it yet. I also want a sleigh, some picture books (one about Jimmie), and some blocks and other toys for my little brother. Don't forget some candy, oranges, nuts and raisins.

Your little boy,
CIRLES H. MEYER,
618 N. Sixth St., City.

My Dear Santa Claus: I will write you a little letter to let you know that I am still living. Please be so kind as to bring me a great big doll and a carriage that will hold it, and a piano that you can get at Moses, a seal ring, a bracelet. Last of all, dear Santa, is a Mr. Christmas tree full of pretties. Papa has cleaned the chimney and you will have an easy time getting down it. I will sleep real tight and be a good child.

From your little girl,
ANNIE ROSS,
228 East Main Street.

My Dear Santa: It is most Christmas, and I am going to ask you to bring me a few things. First, I want a big dog to bring me something to eat. Please bring me plenty of nice candy, nuts, ginger-tops, oranges, apples, figs, raisins, and a few nice grapes, and, Santa, will you please bring me a few toys. I want a goat, a horse, a sheep, a cow, and a billy goat, a lion, bear, and a tiger, and please don't forget my wagon to hitch my horse to, and a big elephant, too. Next, I will ask you for something to cook on. Please bring me a nice cook stove, a cook pot, a coffee pot, a tea kettle, a frying pan, and one pan to bake my bread in, and a nice ear-laze for me to roll her in, and please bring me some pretty new clothes, a nice pair of shoes, a nice crushed velvet coat, a nice set of muff and furs, and bring me a nice automobile to ride in myself; also bring me a pretty train and coaches, a pretty loud horn, and a nice wagon for me to pull, and Santa, please, remember my little cousins on the Church Hill. Now I will ask for a few fireworks, such as cannon-crackers, torpedoes, Roman candles, sky-rockers, devil chasers, thunderbolts, a can, that you walk along the street and pop like a gun, and a toy pistol, and some caps, and I guess that will be fireworks enough for little me; and now, Old Santa, please do not think hard of me for asking for such a few things. Remember, I am a little girl only sixteen months old. Hoping you will bring me these few articles that I have asked you for, I am your little girl.

EMORY RAY JOHNSON,
No. 121 Chaffin St., Richmond, Va.

Dear Santa Claus: I want a big doll, a fur for her, a doll sofa, a tea set, a washstand set, I am a little girl eight years old. Well, Santa, that is all. Can you bring Lazze a doll, too? Good-by, Santa Claus.
